together in this Hall, one year ago. It was here the generacy of the State assembled on that occasion, it was here, we braced on our armor, and unfurled the broad banner, under which we realized, for one of the country. The year has rolled around, and we have returned again,—but under what different circumstances! Then, the busy notes of preparation occurrences of the generation of the deposition of the opportunity as the ventured or thoughts, and the doubts and fears incident to so important a struggle, could not but fillour minds under what lowered over our noness and apprehension. Now, all the contest in the search of the

There were many circumstances connected with the principles upon which we may be justly proud. We sed, that we have deemed it the most appropriate mode trymen; but the other,—ah! where is he! He has either extirpation or death,—certain inevitable death since the time of our revolutionary fathers, has been, Senators," [all Whigs] who only session before last, went forth to the battle, with our principles broadly of manifesting our regard for his character and serinscribed upon our banners. Placing our trust, in the vices, to make this anniversary conducive, as far as plan's tear and the widow's moan. Croshed beneath boast of the western world. One false step then,— trymen. His life has been as brilliant and glorious,

"by voting against going into the Senatorial elechonesty and intelligence of the people, it was our we properly may, to the advancement of those great the wreck of that monstrous institution, whose means one moment's shrinking or giving away before this as it has been honorable and beneficial to his country. tion," disobeyed the voice of the people and violated tornado of wrath and powers he had exhausted in wild and phrenzied tornado of wrath and vengeance, and the chains of the should be thoroughly discussed and clearly manifest vil life, and which we sincerely believe to be essentiations of money king had been riveted forever. But there was ot. As in the case of other national benefactors, tion too, made by Mr. Defrees and others on the floor, ed. Upon those principles, alone, did we rely. We tall to the preservation of our liberties. We may his country, he fell at last, overwhelmed with universno such failure—faithful to his trust in this time of slanders and detractions have been heaped upon him,— to stave it off. "Pass them round." lecting for our standard bearer, a man, only known the details of party argument; and at this time, it I would not attempt to draw this comparison for the may almost paralysed the stoutest hearts; the pure maligned and falsified. But more favored than Michael Aker, James H. Buell, Wm. T. S. Cornett, for his pure life, and his able and consistent mainte- will be peculiarly gratifying to repair to the quiet mere purpose of gratifying to repair to the quiet mere purpose of gratifying personal or party feelings. patriot and incorruptible Statesman, stood firmly at most others of those great men who have experienced nance of those principles, we appealed to our country- shades of the Hermitage, and contemplate the charac- I trust you will give me credit for better motives. It the helm and guided the ship of State in safety through the biting sense of public ingratitude, he has been men to sustain him upon those grounds alone. Our victory is, therefore, a triumph of principle, secured by honest means; and as such, it is the more valuable, and more likely to be permanent.

It is the more principles, we appealed to our country had contended the character of that remarkable man, whose name is strike deep into the mind of every citizen. The man of pure heart and just principle has nothing to fear the storm.

It is the more valuable man, whose name is strike deep into the mind of every citizen. The man of pure heart and just principle has nothing to fear will bear me witness, that this is no exaggerated defeated to our country, and in the storm.

Those of you gentlemen who remember these times will bear me witness, that this is no exaggerated defeated to our country. It is but a very feeble fame have passed away ere the shades of death of the contrary.

equality of legal rights and privileges amongst all the people. These objects are sufficiently secured by our is fast approaching, when no man who values the estate of that venerable man. I am sure the time properly charge the evils that resulted from its coring it, that so simple a matter, as the removal by the properly charge the evils that resulted from its coring it, that so simple a matter, as the removal by the properly charge the evils that resulted from its coring it, that so simple a matter, as the removal by the properly charge the evils that resulted from its coring it, that so simple a matter, as the removal by the properly charge the evils that resulted from its coring it, that so simple a matter, as the removal by the properly charge the evils that resulted from its coring it, that so simple a matter, as the removal by the properly charge the evils that resulted from its coring it, that so simple a matter, as the removal by the properly charge the evils that resulted from its coring it, that so simple a matter, as the removal by the properly charge the evils that resulted from its coring it, that so simple a matter, as the removal by the properly charge the evils that resulted from its coring it. ustrument are strictly adhered to. We are, there- against the name and fame of Andrew Jackson.

formidable from its talents, its wealth, and its num- savage warfare pass away—the painted warriers of ment, the injury is consummated before the discovery agent was sent to England for that purpose, without to which he was so ardently devoted, firmly re-estab- -merely for the sake, I am inclined to believe, of letter, by exercising powers not granted by it, or by their distant coverts, and peace, and security assume siderations, that the safe and sure policy is to run no variety of concurrent facts, proved beyond the possiforced constructions, violating its meaning and the in- the place of cruel war. tentions of its authors. Such is the case in reference But how shall I attempt to paint that scene, one of cessity for doing so, and when the failure may be at-tion either to charter a bank, to tax one portion of the countrymen, the story of New portant, and by far the most interesting in its effects arranged. In the language of that day, its fangs were contend; the prodigious efforts made by our oppopeople for the purpose of giving a bounty to another, Orleans; or to tell them who was the master spirit of and consequences, of any which arose during the ad- drawn, -and the monster writhed and raged accord- nents; their lavish expenditure of time and money; Petrit, is one of them. He did himself infinite credit or to collect money, under any pretence whatever, from that noble army, that met, and vanquished, the proud the public, with a view of distributing it out again to hosts of Britain on the banks of the Mississippi. Al-derstand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or opin- the midst of all the troubles consequent upon these right and wrong in the commencement, as to the commencement in a ten i ion. A political principle, in its usual application, is disastrous times, came the news of the invasion of not only a fixed rule, but one having some relation to the structure or work of the ability to wage such a contest, was abuntous times, came the news of the invasion of the invas the structure, or mode of government, in the community where it is entertained. Mere truisms, or abstract theories, having no such relation, can never form the theories, having no such relation. There are the structure, or mode of government, in the community where it is entertained. Mere truisms, or abstract

the structure, or mode of government, in the commusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to
the structure, or mode of government, in the commusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to
the structure, or mode of government, in the commusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to the structure, or amend, either by construction or
the structure, or mode of government, in the commusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to
the structure, or amend, either by construction or
the structure, or mode of government, in the commusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to
the structure, or mode of government, in the commusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to
the structure, or mode of government, in the commusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to
the structure, or mode of government, in the commusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to
the structure, or mode of government, in the commusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to the structure, or mode of government, in the commuit, so far as it operated as a protection to home manusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to
the structure, or mode of government, in the commuit, so far as it operated as a protection to home manusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to
the structure, or mode of government, in the commusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to
the structure, or mode of government, in the commuit, so far as it operated as a protection to home manusions; and that we will resist forever all attempts to the structure, or mode of government, in the commusions; and that we basis of permanent party organization. There are miles, down the Mississippi and its tributaries, they ple, and the result was, they had their labor and materials, and the result was, they had the result was, they had their labor and materials, and the result was, they had their labor and materials, and the result was, they had the result was, they h ilized world. The despotic, where one man has un- lives, for the preservation of the lt was instantly percived that a moneyed power, per- than they had before. limited authority,—the aristocratic, where the powers as well as the favors of government, are chiefly and the favors of government, are chiefly tenferred upon the higher, more wealthy, or betater classes, as the government which as the favors of government, are chiefly tenferred upon the higher, more wealthy, or betater cratic, where all are equal, and all are entitled authority,—the aristocratic, where the powers south.

Shavery in Delaware.—The whole number of feetly irresponsible to the people, had silently grown upon the higher, more wealthy, or betate, and energetic purpose, will be the most accept slaves in Delaware is less than 3,000, and at a recent and were I to attempt to advert to all the prominent measures of this administration. The bank question is were I to attempt to advert to all the prominent measure of this administration. The bank question is were I to attempt to advert to all the prominent measures of this administration. The bank question is a such a resolution as this, made with sincerity of the age of the silvery in Delaware is less than 3,000, and at a recent able oblation for the prominent measures of this administration. The bank question is always as I have observed, where the power to all the prominent measures of this administration. The bank question is always as I have already to offer the passing chieftain, it is now in our power to offer.

If was instantly percived that a moneyed power, perfectly irresponsible to the people, had silently grown the feetly irresponsible to the people, had silently grown the feetly irresponsible to the people, had silently grown to add a recent to all the prominent measures of this administration. The bank question is always as I have already to offer the passing chieftain, it is now in our power to offer.

If was instantly percived that a moneyed power to all the prominent measures of this administration. The bank question is always as I have observed, where I to attempt to advert is all the prominent measures of the people were feetly irrespons however, for a moment, imagine, that our labors are of beauty, but in the cold embrace of Death. at an end. We have had experience enough to demonstrate, that "the price of liberty is eternal vigilance." If we would preserve those democratic inlance." If we would preserve those democratic inlance at an end. We have had experience enough to dembattle of the great of age, a beautiful living, a perfect gem, one of the great of age, a beautiful living, a perfect gem, one of the motives of the venerable patriot? Had ambition whippen. He tanned his hide properly for him, you the prettiest things in England, with excellent new any depend. "Now," says he, "go, sir and bring freestone-front house, in good repair, facing a park, that "the price of liberty is eternal vigilation and parties thus arrayed. General Jackson was the motives of the great of age, a beautiful living, a perfect gem, one of the motives of the venerable patriot? Had ambition

the motives of the venerable patriot? Had ambition any thing to do with them? No, gentlemen, had he may depend. "Now," says he, "go, sir and bring the motives of the prettiest things in England, with excellent new any thing to do with them? No, gentlemen, had he may depend. "Now," says he, "go, sir and bring
the motives of the great of age, a beautiful living, a perfect gem, one of the motives of the wentlement of the motives of the prettiest things in England, with excellent new the motive of the motives of the prettiest things in England, with excellent new any thing to do with them? Now, gentlemen, had he may depend. "Now," says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says he, "go, sir and bring the motive says stitutions, which have rendered our country so prospersus and happy, we must be ever watchful. The arms of truth are irresistible, but the present generation to require any recapitulation, by his approval, the been governed by sordid or interested motives, or even
in a proper backlog."

in the country of sommerset, at the skirts of a small continuance of that fame he had already acline the present generation to require any recapitulation.

May they ever to sanction, by his approval, the
been governed by sordid or interested motives, or even
in a proper backlog."

"Gucum was clear grit as well as the old man, for honor to those brave men who participated in the glolong the present generation to require any recapitulation.

May they ever to sanction, by his approval, the
been governed by sordid or interested motives, or even
in a proper backlog."

"Gucum was clear grit as well as the old man, for
honor to those brave men who participated in the glolong the present generation to require any recapitulation.

May they ever to sanction, by his approval, the
been governed by sordid or interested motives, or even
in a proper backlog."

"Gucum was clear grit as well as the old man, for honor to those brave men who participated in the glolong the present generation of a similar character. Although, perlong the present generation to require any recapitulation.

May they ever to sanction, by his approval, the
been governed by sordid or interested motives, or even
in a proper backlog."

"Gucum was clear grit as well as the old man, for honor to those brave generation to require any recapitulation.

Have the present generation of a small who the state of the country of the state of a small where the present generation of a small continuance of that institution, or the sanction, by the desire to preserve that the present generation of a small where the present generation of a small continuance of the country of the state of a small where the present generation of a small continuance of the country of the state of things, placed the means of happiness within our leach, but imposed upon us the necessity of using of Andrew Jackson, his civil services have not been the recharter of the bank was the great and all absorb-

INDIANA STATE SENTINEL. towards the accomplishment of an object they have time in its coils, or to strengthen the ranks of its tion. He was subjected to gross and personal insults, New and profitable channels of trade were opened to

No man can find any direct power in the constitu- superfluous in this day, or in this age, to repeat to my The bank question was undoubtedly the most im- measure, therefore, its plans were broken up and dis-once broken through, would be altogether useless. sent, without alluding, at least, to that great victory. democracy had been sleeping since the termination of production of a large amount of revenue, swelled those blessings of liberty and self-government. We have Each set of men who might happen to be temporarily in power, would always find plausible reasons, for construing the construing thave in view; we oppose these measures, also because they are, in themselves, unjust, unequal and opposes the country. The young West, was opposed in the wisdom and forestimulated of the wisdom and for thought of those who framed that admirable instrument, that all the assumptions of power, and all the obnoxious measures, we have contended against, as a party, will be found, on strict examination, to be un thought of those who framed that admirable instrument, that all the assumptions of power, and all the obnoxious measures, we have contended against, as a the prospect of being deprived of it. Under the operation of this system, the agricultural interest was robtion in a political point of view, until it was pointed the prospect of being deprived of it.

The firemen were soon on the spot, but want of wation of this system, the agricultural interest was robtion in a political point of view, until it was pointed bed, while the manufacturing was cheated, for the party, will be found, on strict examination, to be un-

tionably, the plan upon which our government was greatest warrior of the age, came careering on, in prices of all articles of commerce, and all the products tive fury, with which it is so characteristic of asso. Imies, -it rests with ourselves alone to preserve and organized; but there are, as unquestionably, many the expectation of enjoying a mere expedition of of labor, rose and fell at its bidding; and that in a ciated wealth, to pursue those who have sufficient perpetuate the inestimable blessings of freedom and persons in the country who would prefer the second. pleasure, after the hardships they had recently en- word, individual prosperity. God grant that we may never prove re-If they do not directly advocate such a plan, they do countered. Far as the eye could reach, the white on industry, skill, and enterprise, but on the secret pose its views. Upon his veto of the St. Louis Republican says: "It is mentioned so indirectly, by supporting measures which would sails of their ships dotted over the surface of the movements of a conclave of bank directors. Such bill, a fresh torrent of bitter vituperation was poured to us. practically change our democratic system, into one of ocean, and the wassail song and merry jest resounded powers were as hostile to all the principles of democ- out upon the patriot chief. By this step a check was the aristocratic character. This difference of senti- from the exhibarated groups upon their decks. Alt | racy, as they were congenial to the sentiments and put to projects, which under the pretence of promotment was the true cause of the origin of our party di- little did those brave men dream, when the long wish- views of those who leaned towards an aristocracy, ing internal improvements, were calculated to open visions, and the antogonistical principles which pre- ed for land appeared upon the horizon, and they con- This contest, therefore, operated as a decisive test of the door of the treasury, and invite a general scram- Peleg Sanford; well, the old squire, and all his family she has about consented so to do." vail in the country, must severally be referable to these two modes of government. There never has been nor can there be any other, while this radical difference of sentiment exists, of sufficient interest or portance to keep the vast masses of the people control to keep the vast masses of the people control to keep the vast masses of the people control to the defence of the value of the subtraction of the sufficient interest or interest, therefore, operated as a decisive test of the for appropriations of public money. This contest, therefore, operated as a decisive test of the for appropriations of public money. This contest, therefore, operated as a decisive test of the for appropriations of public money. This contest, therefore, operated as a decisive test of the for appropriations of public money. This contest, therefore, operated as a decisive test of the formal interest or in stantly divided, and arrayed in two great hosele par- nerve and lion heart, whom Providence had reared up a spirit of personal hostility to Mr. Adams, went back A bill for distributing the proceeds of the church, where to save his country in that emergency. Little did to their old camp, and many individuals who had op-lands, was another measure against which he interpos-These principles were, during the late canvass, they imagine, when the bright waves of the Gulf posed his election, but who were democrats in princi-too strong a hold. thoroughly discussed, in relation to the variet's itsues sparkled in the genial beams of a southern sun, and ple, rallied to his support. Thus did the modern de- him standing firmly in the breach, whenever the right "Well as soon as Gucom goes to fetch the log, the which were presented before the public. We have seemed to reflect in their dancing waters, the bright been successful. The people, in the majesty of their own spirits, that so many power, have decided that democracy shall still continuous for encourties and gaiety of their own spirits, that proud array would in a few days lie principles, and dependent on them alone, for encourties and gaiety of their own spirits, that so many because the following advertisement from the London Times:

We quote the following advertisement from the London Times:

Into its place. Presently in comes Gueon with a continuous first the first dancing waters, the bright don Times:

On the people, or the conservative powers of the continuous forms and from the London Times in the following advertisement from the London Times:

On the people, or the conservative powers of the continuous forms and from the following advertisement from the London Times:

On the people, or the conservative powers of the continuous forms and from the following advertisement from the London Times:

On the people of the people tinue predominant in the government. We must not, down upon the field of New Orleans, not in the arms agement and support.

them, if we would enjoy their benefits. The tenden- less brilliant and important. Although perhaps, the ing question. The result was universally looked to erful and vindictive. He might have glided along and his own master. Well, as soon as he was a man whole worth £250 a year. Terms—In-coming cy which has ever existed in man to enslave his fel- time has not yet arrived when full justice can be done as a test of the popular will in reference to that sub- through his administration with ease and tranquility. grown, and lawfully on his own hook, he took it into cumbent to pay down £1900,—to indemnify present lows, is as active in this country as in any other, and to his character, I do not think it will be out of place ject. The decision is well known; but the bank in- The measure of his fame was full,—he could have de- his head one day he'd go home and see his father and incumbent's outlay on the spot, and for his fixtures, tis the more dangerous, because always inside one day he do not think it will be out of place its time was always insidence on this occasion, to pass in brief review, some of the special most remarkable events of his political life. The by stealth, and gradual events of his political life. The decision is well known, because always insidence in his head of quiety acquisecing, immediately prepared for the didn't for they didn't from they didn't clouds that lowered over our hopes, are scattered away, been appropriated to a mixed purpose. That illustriated to a mixed purpose. That illustriated to a mixed purpose. That illustriated to a mixed purpose. and glorious victory has rewarded our exertions. We ous chief, who was the prominent actor in those great bave, indeed, abundant cause for joyful congratulations. We ous chief, who was the prominent actor in those great one strife, have cooled down, and passed away; but could not but perceive in all these movements additional and imperative reasons to pursue with unflinch lotted me on this occasion, could not be better or more stood in the same predicament. To use the Journal's

Let us recur, for a moment, to those principles, his God, s ill dwells the mighty mind of one who is his character shines the brighter, the longer it is ex-present constitution; provided, the provisions of that teem of his fellow-citizens, will venture to say aught | We are sometimes told, that the result would have government of its own funds from one place of deposit | We are sometimes told, that the result would have government of its own funds from one place of deposit | We are sometimes told, that the result would have government of its own funds from one place of deposit | We are sometimes told, that the result would have government of its own funds from one place of deposit | We are sometimes told, that the result would have government of its own funds from one place of deposit | We are sometimes told, that the result would have government of its own funds from one place of deposit | We are sometimes told, that the result would have government of its own funds from one place of deposit | We are sometimes told, the provisions of the late great contest. been different under honest management,-that such to another, should have occasioned such violent com- issues which, during his own time, had occasioned fore, strict constructionists. We look, firstly, to the Looking back upon the history of our country for an institution under the control of able and faithful motions. But the bank had already greatly exhausted such violent agitations of the public mind, were now More Whig Compliments to the Whig safeguards of the constitution, and secondly, to the last thirity years, through these misty shadows managers, could be made greatly conducive to the last thirity years, through these misty shadows managers, could be made greatly conducive to the laws of natural equity and justice, for tests, by which which Time casts upon all human actions, we percieve public interest, and at the same time would be free expenditures to corrupt the press and secure the servi mocracy, were again combined with all the factions the well known features of that now aged chief, fig- from the danger of those corruptions and abuses which, ces of political partizans; and it therefore required reared up by local interests, and blind fanaticism in the well known features of that now aged chief, figthe world, that while the latter are striving to wreat

the world, that while the latter are striving to wreat in subjection, the former are endeavoring to preserve they have already acquired. We are, therefore, always on the defensive. When the necessity for resistance ceases, we have no longer occasion for the object of the infuriated savage;—to party organization. But such has never been the formidable from its talents, its wealth, and its nums and abuses which, the well known features of that now aged chief, figthis difference in the position of the demgreat in this country, and of those in other parts of the world, that while the latter are striving to wreat
the world, that while the latter are striving to wreat the world that move aged chief, figthis difference in the position of the demgreat in this country, and of those in other parts of the world, that while the latter are striving to wreat
the world, that while the latter are striving to wreat the instruction for the search which were gard as important and eventful. Did the to the old Bank of the Cinted States. But where the dearly chargeable to the distracted mother, classing her tremfrom the dustreacts, and lit therefore required which were regards in institute operations for the seanch and the base deposities in its future operations for the seanch where the state of the latter are striving to wreat
the world, that while the latter are striving to wreat the world when the confidence of Mr. Pettit is well dethere are the confidence of Mr. Pettit is well dethere are the confidence of Mr. Pettit is well dethe and prominent regist, in all those crasts it is now generally admitted, were justly chargeable to the distracted mother, classing for the distracted mother, classing her tremthough the distracted mother, classing her tremthough the distracted mother, classing her tremthough the distracted mother, classing her tremthe form the dustreact when the distracted mother, classi bers, who would render that instrument merely a dead the wilderness, repelled by his vigorous arm, fly to is made. It is manifest, therefore, upon general consuch risks, especially when there is no imperative ne- bility of doubt, that the bank was concentrating all depart in peace-his work is done-" the republic Jones of Fountain, Rich, and Whight advocated, and party, will be found, on strict examination, to be unconstitutional.

and while the British lion was ravaging the control by his paternal and warning voice, as an unsafe bigh taxes paid by the former, ostensibly for the beneand sunny land of promise, and now like the Israelitby being run over by an engine.

East, consigning our capitol to the flames, and plunand dangerous institution. The consequences that There is an obvious distinction between a principle and dangerous institution. The consequences that the was right,—and ameasure, and yet they are continually confounded, especially by our opponents. A principle, I unsupposed the inhabitants of the western frontier. In the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment, or oning the restand to be a fundamental rule, sentiment or only the rule of the latter, only went to swell the amount of the latter, only went to swell the amount of the latter, only went to swell the amount of the latter, only went to swell the amount of the latter, only went to swell the amount of the latter, only went to swell the amount of the restand to the restand to the rule of the latter, only went to swell the amount of the latter, only went to swell the amount of the restand to the restand to the restand to the rule of the latter, only went to swell the amount of the latter, only went to swell the amount of the latter, only went to swell the amount of the latter, only went to swell the total content of the latter, only went to swell the restand to the rule of the latter, only went to swell the swell the swell the swell the swell the swell that the swell the swell that the swell the swell that the swe

With an issue thus distinctly tendered and accept- paid

ADDILES

ADDILES

ADDILES

ADDILES

ADDILES

ADDILES

ADDILES

By Tuonas L. Shirii, Esc., of New Albany, on the security of liber escentatives, Indianapolics, on the Ethic of Presentatives, Indianapolics, on the Ethic of State (with the presentatives). Indianapolics, on the Ethic of State (with the presentatives) of the Bank and its President on 1845.

Mer. President State (and the complishment of an object they have administration of the Bank and its President on the Halle of New and profitable channels of trade were opened to fine the Halle of New and profitable channels of trade were opened to fine data the contemptable perpetitators were rewarded with subject to gross and personal insults, and the contemptable perpetitators were rewarded with formal devices of the Embary of the Bank and its President on 1845.

SATURDAY, JANUARY II, 1845.

SA

the people, or the States, as a gift. All these powers most every neighborhood in this State, has its repre- the rise and progress of what has been called by our political operations of the bank which perhaps should all the arts and appliances that uncerupulous wealth has Miami county, on Friday last. Though entirely local are attempted to be carried into operation by constructions. We oppose them; and one reason for our opposition is, that it is dangerous to permit the position, that it is dangerous to permit the permit the permit the permit the permit democracy. We care little for apposition, that the permit democracy is will be judged by reasonable men. Modern democraand gratification, that the people of the stockholders and favorites of the stockholders and favorites of the Bank. A high tariff, so counteracted by the exliterate to man application of the least sight of. A system had gradually got into opponents, modern democracy. We care little for appellations—it is by their substantial effects that things operation, than which permits sentatives—there are some here to-day, who were preposition. A system had gradually got into opponents, modern democracy. We care little for appellations—it is by their substantial effects that things operation, than which permits of the least sight of. A system had gradually got into opponents, modern democracy is by their substantial effects that things operation, than which permits of the least sight of the least sight of the series of the sent title for appellations—it is by their substantial effects that things operation, than which permits operations. The common operation of the least sight of the least for one purpose, it will be for others, and the barrier But we cannot pass over an occasion like the pre- Confiding too much in its own strength and resources, passion of the currency, that its chief effect was the enjoy, as they are able to protect, the inestimable these are merely idle suspicions, without foundation; but history and experience teach us the lead of the government, there are now few, even the was not as traction at the was not as traction and proper method of the party strife which raged around the eight years of his administration at him, during the eight years of his administration at him, during the eight years of his administration at him, during the eight years afore, but history and experience teach us the head of the government, there are now few, even the head of the government in the head of the governmen trary governments can't off their black is Two; because they are so fattered and bound down, that it is country.

In a relative representation to the welfare of the cases they are so fattered and bound down, that it is country.

In the chain of opposition said strongly have the cases of the said and particular strongly on the said strongly was not then, to other secrets, not so brilliant the country on the said strongly was not then a secret blace through which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should consistent in the strongly which we have a passed. Every man should remain the strongly which the passed of the strongly which they will be related to the strongly which they suit the strongly which we have a passed in the strongly which they suit the strongly that the strongly which they will be related to the strongly which they suit to strongly the strongly which they suit to strongl our country, became in after life so identified with the actors ! The one still lives in the calm retirement of ling firmness the straight forward path of principle and appropriately spent, than in endeavoring to recal to our language then, (we love to follow so moral and decent There were many circumstances connected with the principles upon which our political organization is ba- declining age, beloved and venerated by all his coun-

They are the great conservatives of our republican deeply fixed in the hearts of his countrymen. Now posed to public scrutiny; but the representative of a few of those scenes in which we were then partici- Almighty Disposer of events, shall summon his iminstitutions, and, as I honestly believe, upon their suc-cessful maintenance depends the continued welfare sure, passed away, I may say without danger of con-delusion on which it is based. Mr. Biddle was prob-patriotism of our heroic chief, were so conspicuously and prosperity of the country. They consist, briefly, in tradiction, that a heart more purely devoted to its ably, by nature, all that his friends represented him. displayed. At this short distance of time even, it country, will with one voice exclaim, "Well done, the maintenance of the popular sovereignty, and of an country's welfare, never beat in human bosom, than It is to the institution and not the man, that we should appear astonishing to those who are not familtheir continual attempts to deceive the unsuspecting, in a speech in relation to a bill which he introduced. that such a resolution as this, made with sincerity of SLAVERY IN DELAWARE. The whole number of

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11, 1845.

Robert G. Cotton, John D. Defrees, John Ewing, Sylvanus Everts, Eli P. Farmer, James T. Moffatt, James Morgan, David Mount, John W. Odell, Samuel W. Parker, Benj. F. Reeve, Thomas R. Stanford, Williamson Wright.-See Senate Journal for 1842-'43, page 346.

The Journal will please copy.

Supreme Judges.

By the Senate proceedings it will be seen that the House of Representatives.

We find the following in the Jennings county Reporter. The favorable notice of Mr. Pettit is well deto the various questions upon which the two great parties have been divided.

Gentlemen, when we look back upon the scene it in speeches of considerable length," which means, the property of the people a renewal of its charter. By this community.

Gentlemen, when we look back upon the scene it in speeches of considerable length," which means, the people a renewal of its charter. By this community.

MORMONISM.—'The Springfield (Ills.) correspondent here that Wood, who acted as one of Joe Smith's counsel at the time of his death, is endeavoring to prevail on the "prophet's wife to make a full exposure of Our nearest neighbor, says Sam Slick, was squire Mormonism, and to allow him to publish it, and that too strong a hold.

and most nobly was their affection and confidence re- little cat stick, no bigger than his leg and throws it on. "To THE CLERGY.—An incumbent would resign Uncle Peleg got so mad, he never said a word, but directly, with patron's consent, to one not under 46